

Splash Car Wash acquires Knockout Car Wash in New York

The brand's total footprint across the United States has grown to 56 locations as it continues its growth with several new sites being built.

Splash Car Wash has acquired New York-based Knockout Car Wash, an express wash site outfitted with a 190-foot tunnel and 20 self-service vacuums.

This acquisition bolsters Splash's presence in the Albany market and brings its total wash count to 56, 38 of which are located in New York with the remainder in Connecticut and Vermont.

"The acquisition connects our locations from Long Island through the central, northern and western parts of the state. The Hameroffs did a wonderful job constructing this beautiful carwash and we are proud to continue their legacy," said Mark Curtis, CEO of Splash.

In addition, the company is continuing construction on two new express washes located in Oswego and Leray, New York, scheduled to open in May. The firm also plans to commence construction on five more washes in the market.

Furthermore, Splash announced that two new Connecticut sites, one located in Milford and the other in Derby, are expected to open in the second quarter of this year. Two sites in Vermont and one in Massachusetts have also begun construction. All sites will be operated as express wash sites.
